

Built for Habitat — Scavenger Hunt

Check the box when you see the following animals.

Take a closer look at their habitats and answer the questions below.

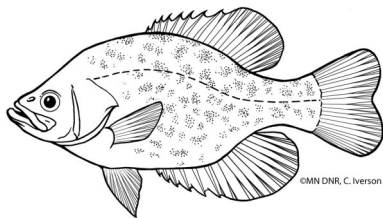

FRESHWATER

What do the American alligators look like while they are standing still in the water?

Look for the eastern chipmunk. Where is it hiding?

Crappies use countershading to hide from predators. Why is it helpful to have darker colors on their back?

Where is a pleco's mouth located? _____

Where do you think its food is found? _____

SALTWATER

What patterns on the longhorn cowfish help it camouflage into its habitat?

Where do the bay pipefish hide in their exhibit?

This species has stomachs shaped like horse-shoes. How many stomach does a moon jelly have?

Colors and patterns can send messages to predators. What does the lionfish's pattern tell other animals?
